In Memoriam

George L. Bolyard

Administration And Classes

2022126

A strong and active "Home Front" is one of the great needs of today. If we are to win the war, and have a lasting peace, we will need sensible, educated people to carry on the American way of life. The desire to prepare for this peace accounts for the ambition and zest shown by many students in school life.

The program of the school, initiated by the school board and enacted by the faculty, is carrying on the work of the "Home Front".

Lieut. (j. g.) John H. Young

Dedication

To a person whose pleasing personality and sense of humor made our life at school a pleasure. . . . To one who gave endlessly his time and expert advice so that New Haven High School might obtain a First Class Commission and gain admittance into the North Central Association. . . . To the man, who, with his friendly advice and interest, helped us through many difficult situations. . . . To Lieutenant John H. Young, who left his cherished position as principal, to join the Navy, so that he might do his part to bring the war to a successful end. . . . To him we dedicate this volume of the Mirage.

Mr. Lee Burgette

Our best wishes to Mr. Lee Burgette for success in his new position as trustee. He was appointed to assume the responsibilities of this office which was left vacant by the sudden death of Mr. George Bolyard. Mr. Burgette is well qualified to handle the duties this office imposes, and we are proud to welcome him as our new leader.

Mr. Byron E. Downey

Mr. Downey was appointed principal during the absence of Lieutenant Young. As a graduate of Indiana University, Mr. Downey is well qualified for the position. During the eight years associated with the New Haven High School he has established himself as a friend and partner to all connected with the school.

History Of Class Of 1943

In September, 1939, there entered, along with a new principal, Mr. Young, 117 "green, little freshmen." At the time, that long-hoped-for Graduation Day seemed quite far away, but now we have begun to realize how short our high school career has been.

When we came to school for our first instructions, it was with fear and trembling. However, our fears soon vanished and we spent most of our time trying to get away from the hands of the stately dignified upper classmen who threatened our very lives if we did not obey their commands. Except for a few activities, our freshman year was rather uneventful. Elected to head our group were Paul Bearman, President; Herbert Burgette, Vice-president; Eleda Stemmler, Secretary; and Evelyn Rebber, Treasurer.

In September, 1940, we again wended our way to N. H. H. S. We felt rather superior and very brilliant, a well-known characteristic of sophomores, and how we did lord it over the little freshmen, who were just entering. Our officers' slate contained the names of Delores Schlink, President; Charles Bandelier, Vice-president; Verda Byers, Secretary; and Howard Zelt, Treasurer.

It was at the beginning of our junior year that things really began to happen, and both students and teachers took note of our good deeds and misdemeanors—if any of such could be found.

Leading us along that rough and rocky road were Carl Fruechtenicht, President; Ethel Schnelker, Vice-president; Anna Lee Groves, Secretary; and Paul Bearman, Treasurer. Our biggest project this year was the supervision of the Canteen. It held untold hours of work but with the assistance of our ever faithful sponsors, Mr. Downey and Miss Barnett, we managed to come out in good shape.

Other important activities this year were our Junior Play, "Cross My Heart," and that long-looked-for Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Valencia Gardens.

In the fall of '42 we had attained the dignity of Seniors. Nothing—absolutely nothing—could oppress our spirits. We had arrived—and to make it more emphatic we began to show signs of sense and even at times a glimmer of brilliancy.

Heading our brigade were Edward Koester, President; Carl Fruechtenicht, Vice-president; Verda Byers, Secretary; and Ethel Schnelker, Treasurer.

Although we suffered many knocks and bruises seventy-four Seniors emerged to experience that all-important event—Graduation. We are now about to celebrate the end of this illustrious journey through the paths that led to a high school education. For the most part our journey has been very successful and filled with many joys. With our eyes slightly blurring and a sizable lump in our throats we bid a fond "Farewell" to our beloved Alma Mater.

Class Prophecy Of 1943

The other day as I walked down Main Street, I met an old classmate of 1943. It was Paul Bearman, the street cleaner. We talked awhile and he informed me that he and his wife, Virginia Hutson, were having a party. Of course he invited me to the party, as there were going to be many of our former classmates there. After promising to be there, I sauntered on down the street. Since I was thirsty, I decided to go into the drug store and get a coke. Who do you think was jerking sodas? None other than our very brilliant student, Carl Fruechtenicht! As I drank my coke he told me about many of our friends, including his wife, Verda Byers. They now have two kids, Carl Jr. and Janie. He was going to the party, so I went with Verda and him. On the way we stopped at the Swihart Beauty Salon and picked up Bonnie and her two helpers, Ruth Doty and Carolyn Kollman Craig. They are both good friends of Glenna Tustison and they informed me that she was still looking for a man, namely Howard Zelt. We finally arrived at the party and talked with the other guests. Mary Jane Albertson informed us that Irene Sommers was married to a handsome marine and was living in Brooklyn. June Headford and Lois Ulrey, the opera stars, are on a tour. Bonnie Adams is their clever pianist. I always knew their good singing would get them places, but not in the opera. Delores Schlink is a chorus girl at Ciros. I hear she can really swing it. Mary Belle Hodson is a roller skater. Its the only way she could continue to wear short skirts. The Rebber twins, Eleonora and Leonora, have married twins from Zulu and each has a little boy two years old. Gloria Wiegmann is still looking for a boy friend. She can't hold one because they say she talks too much and too loud. Merle Rigby is sticking pretty close to her, though. Richard Beyer was taken into court the other day for bigamy. It seems he married two girls, Alice Doctor and Lois Hathaway. When asked if he were guilty or not he said, "I guess it was pretty big-of-me." Russel Meyer and Joan Hively are still thinking of getting married. It seems they've been thinking along this line for quite some time now. Joan had better keep her eye on Evelyn Rebber. They tell me Noah Swartz still thinks he has a chance to win Lois Amstutz. Dorothy Bearman and Helen Stauffer are going to college to study teaching. They get pretty good grades. They must have pull with the teachers. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koester, the former Anna Lee Groves, are doing quite well as editors of the New Haven Times. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, the former Flo Ladig, are doing quite well as coaches of girls and boys physical ed. classes at I. U. Betty Brennan is still fluttering around like a butterfly and can't find the real McCoy. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hitzemann, the former Marjorie Willet, are great ballroom dancers. Alice Oberlin is really doing all right in taking care of Virge, a World War II veteran. Marlo Gene Felt Lee who is now divorced, is taking good care of their twins, Danny Jr. and Sandy. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bechtol, the former Milly Bowers are having marital difficulties. Bruce Masters and Edward Ulmer think they're doing all right as movie comedians. While going through Pittsburgh on a vacation Milly visited Carnegie Hall and saw some of the work done by Edward Long and Roy Hart which proves that "the best art of all moves to Carnegie Hall." Deloris Rothgeb is the proprietor of the Ritzy Rothgeb Milinery Shop. Her husband Norman, is chauffering a large Cadillac for President William Stanley White Jr. Walter "Oscor" Seemann is now married to the former Ethel Schnelker. They are enjoying themselves on their small farm near Pittsburgh. Charles Winans and Maurice Krauskoff are now working in a munition plant. Paul Milliman and Julia Seddlemeyer are seen quite frequently at some of the night clubs. Clayton Lewis has to use color-back to keep his dark curly locks from turning gray. The new school trustee, Eugene Lepper, is still keeping company with Rosie Thomas, a great engineer at a well-known company in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Heller, the former Marian Lampe, are spending their honeymoon on an island in the South Seas. While refreshments were being served a telegram came from Howard Menking, the famous actor in Hollywood. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Miller, the former Estella Bremer, had to leave early to catch a train to Washington, D. C. You know he is our Representative in Congress. Lloyd Melcher is now a professor in music at U. C. L. A. The Georgia Teck football team consists of Kenneth Bandelier, captain, Harry Gantz, Henry Hartman, Bob Kain and Orville McFadden. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Critchfield, the former June Bolinger, are now living on a ranch in Texas. Many people on the west coast stop at the Pladium to hear the sweet music of Richard Hockemeyer and his cornyteers. Max Ward is a famous surgeon at Mayo Brothers Clinic in Seattle, Wash. On the way home from the party I went down to the corner store run by Mr. and Mrs. Max Neidhart, the former Evelyn Wetzel, to talk over old times. I picked up the paper and there on the front page was a scoop from Europe by Dallas Weibel.

Juniors

Because of the shortage of tires and gasoline, we juniors were unable to have many of the extra-curricular activities which are commonly enjoyed during the junior year. In spite of this, the class of "44" has been active in many projects. Members of our class were represented in all the organizations of the school, which included Sunshine Society, G. A. A., Masque and Gavel, Mirage Staff, and the Band.

The Junior Class had three home rooms. Each individual room had a representative on the Student Council. These representatives were Betty Kuhl, Pauline Werling, and William Anweiler.

Early in the year the class elected William Goeglein, president; Waldemar Heller, vice-president; LaDonna Robinett, secretary; Pauline Werling, treasurer.

With the help of our class sponsors, Mrs. Redman and Mr. Pensinger, we had a profitable year in the school canteen. We had a short class party which featured a bingo mixer game, at Christmas time. This party was enjoyed by the whole class.

During Activity periods, our home rooms had many projects. Included in these were plans and the actual performance of a junior song-fest. War stamp drives, interesting programs in observance of special days, and talks by students helped to make our activity periods "Active".

Four of our classmates, Tom Baillie, Richard Byer, Russell Jacquay and Wallace Quandt left to join the armed forces. Phyllis Edgar, Rita Girardot, Joseph Isenbarger, Edmund Ortlib and Dewane Thompson left to take jobs. John Wright is now attending the Chester High School near North Manchester.

DeVon Frane and Wallace Quandt were the outstanding athletes of our class. They acted as managers of the class team in the class basketball tournament. Others who were on the junior team for the tourney were Wright, Harper, Meyers, Stellhorn, Frosch, Jacquay, Anweiler and Heller. Norma Milliman was chosen to lead the class yells in the tournament.

The class had in its membership girls who were active in athletics. The basketball team composed of Maxine Girardot, Alma Vodde, Jean Larson, Norma Milliman, Joann Bandelier, Joan Krug, Alice Tiemann, and Elna Becker, won the class championship. Donnabelle Kitchen, vice-president of the G. A. A. was the only junior girl to receive her letter.

In the Masque and Gavel, our dramatic club, we juniors were outstanding. There were ten junior members: Virgil Asher, D. Kitchen, Jean Lrason, John Meyers, Norma Milliman, Clara Ransome, LaDonna Robinett, Russel Schweyer, Barbara Seibert, and Pauline Werling. In three of the plays given, the leads were juniors; LaDonna Robinett as Susanne, in "Washington Through the Keyhole"; Norma Milliman as Anita in "Last Night's Paper"; and Virgil Asher as the King in "The Queen Who Couldn't Make Spice Nuts."

For the first time in the history of the New Haven High School, the juniors had a Prom which replaced the traditional Junior-Senior banquet.

The crowning of the "Queen" was the outstanding feature of the Prom which was held in the gymnasium May 7.

Sophomores

The sophomores began the year by having a very successful skating party, in spite of the grave transportation difficulty.

The class showed its ability to work by winning the prize for selling the most tickets to the class tournament. They also gave the seniors a "run for their money" in the final game of the "tourney".

The group which was sponsored by Miss Leininger and Mr. Marshall had some fine officers: Charles Romine, President; Richard Miller, Vice-President; Marcille Bearman, Secretary; and Jack Birt, Treasurer.

The sophomore class has been well represented in all school activities this year. Some of our "BSOHS" (Big Shots of High School) are:

Student Council: Charles Romine, Dick Miller, Bernice Lepper, Kathleen Goeglein, and Charlene Stoneburner.

Basketball: Dick Adams, Jack Birt, Roland Arnold, Elvin Meyer, Richard Miller, Joe Bolyard, Wayne Judt, Dick Jump, Wayne Stellhorn, Charles Klenke, and Lorenz Stemmler.

Music: Ted Butt, Dick Adams, Russell Griffiths, Neal Martin, Marge Myers, Phyllis Menking, Vivian Mehring, Barbara Asher, Erhart Scheeler, Laura Stemmler and Lyle Ramsey.

Majorettes: Nancy Moreland, Delores McClain, and Joan Copp.

Sunshine: Jean Bowser, Kathleen Goeglein, Alvena Kanning, Vivian Mehring, Marjorie Myers, Leona Momper, Lillian Petry, Charlene Stoneburner, Delores Van Meter, Lucille Hathaway, Evelyn Forsyth, and Phyllis Menking.

G. A. A.: Delores Van Meter, Marjorie Springer, Marcille Bearman, Laura Stemmler, Kathleen Goeglein, Iona Bohn, Phyllis Menking, Marjorie Myers, Lillian Petry, and Kathleen Koehlinger.

In addition to these, Joe Bolyard has been active in dramatics and surely is in line for Masque and Gavel.

All in all—the sophomores can claim a "pretty" successful school year.

Freshmen

Mr. Noah Webster defines the noun "Freshmen" as "full of strength." This is indeed characteristic of the Freshmen Class of New Haven High this year. The class enrolled in September, strong and rarin' to go.

In October the members of this class elected the following officers: Leonard Luginbill, president; Betty Campbell, Vice-President; Herman Rebber, Treasurer; and Robert Schrage, Secretary.

The Freshmen are well represented in the various activities and organizations of the school. High notes and low notes of the band are heard from the following members: Jack Critchfield, Richard Morris, Raymond Kallmeyer, Stanford Groves, Jack Glaze, Georgeanna Momper, Alma Jean Schooley, Maxine Rathbun, Joan Hawkins, and Beulah Smith.

The "puppies" who promise to make a snappy "Bull Dog team" are: Leonard Luginbill, Kenneth Gasper, Harold Poeppel, Jack Glaze, Bob Schrage, Howard Beasley, George Stauffer, and Johnny Morris.

Little rays of sunshine are cast by Gloria Hemsoth, Donna Jean Meyers, Elenore Stoneburner, Joan Hawkins, Joan Heine, Kathleen Mack, Georganna Momper, Patty Carpenter, Maxine Bixler, and Betty Larimore who are faithful members of the Sunshine Society.

In academic work the "high mark" freshmen are: Herman Rebber, Herman Hauslein, Evanell Bordner, Raymond Kallmeyer, Margaret Hemsoth, Louena Bearman, Eileen Judt, Marjorie Heovel, and Clarabell Romine. Some of the freshmen have correlated their subjects unusually well. In Biology class the touch of art always prevails in the drawings of Sharon Baltes, Lois Whitacre, Jeanette Minick, Don Fry, Kathleen Mack, Betty Hazelet, Eleanore Stoneburner, Rita Lunz, Mary Whitmore and Don Reno. One-third of the class is learning to speak the dead language, Latin. Another third of the class is learning to speak correctly the modern language, English. The other third is learning to draw angles.

The freshmen are "divided into three parts" for Home Room Activity under the supervision of Mr. Frock, Miss Bower, and Miss Royster.

The class treasury is off to a good start with money earned by working in the canteen during basketball games.

It is the sincere desire of the freshmen class at all times to uphold the ideals of New Haven High School and to be worthy citizens of the school and community.

Activities

The many activities offered enable every student to take part and excel in at least one. In addition to home room activities, students may take part in Masque and Gavel, G. A. A., Sunshine Society, Band, Mirage, Student Council and Intra-mural games. Although the war, especially rationing, has somewhat affected their activities, these extra curricular organizations are still functioning, to help keep up the morale of the people on the "Home Front."

Student Council

"To improve the activities of the New Haven High School" is the purpose of the student council. The council is composed of the following members: Bonnie Adams, William Anweiler, Betty Campbell, Carl Fruechtenicht, president; Don Fry, Kathleen Goeglein, treasurer; Waldemar Heller, Joan Hively, Eileen Judt, Edward Koester, Betty Kuhl, vice-president; Bernice Lepper, Leonard Luginbill, secretary; Dick Miller, Harold Peoppels, Charles Romine, Delores Schlink, Pauline Werling and Ruth Wright. George Stauffer, secretary, and Charlene Stoneburner completed the unexpired terms of Leonard Luginbill and Ruth Wright, who moved from our community. The Council has been under the devoted sponsorship of Miss Daniels.

Although our responsibilities and activities are numerous, they divide themselves into four parts: devotional services, auditorium programs, recreational activities, and miscellaneous projects.

Devotional services were held in commemoration of designated periods. Rev. W. J. Ehrman gave an inspirational talk at the September devotional service. The Christmas devotional service was presented by the Speech and Music Departments under the direction of Miss Leininger and Mr. Guthier. At the annual Easter Service, Rev. H. L. Wiese discussed the significance of the Lenten Season.

Auditorium programs were presented in various forms. Mr. George Davis of the Personal Department of Purdue gave a very entertaining lecture recital on poems by James Whitcomb Riley. Sheik Raphael Emmanuel presented an educational lecture on the land of Turkey. The high school together with the junior high school enjoyed band concerts presented by Mr. Guthier and his band. The Washington's birthday program, which consisted of entertainment and a War Stamp drive, was organized and given by the Masque and Gavel in cooperation with the council. The stamp sale amounted to $90.25. In March the MASQUE AND GAVEL collaborated with the council and presented an admission program. The proceeds were divided between the organizations.

Because of the gas rationing our recreational activities were held in the form of dances after basketball games. Admittance to the Defense Dance, November 13, was gained by buying some denomination of War Stamps or Bonds. The annual SNOWBALL HOP was held after the Elmhurst game, December 16. Other dances were held December 11, February 12, and February 19 after basketball games.

Miscellaneous activities sponsored by the council include such things as: The monitor system, traffic in the building, painting fire drill signs, repairing room numbers, and taking lunch orders. Other notable projects, which were greatly appreciated by the student body, were the placing of a Christmas tree in the main hallway and the decorating of the gymnasium for the county tournament.

Poise, personality and purpose is the theme of the sixty members of the New Haven Chapter of the Indiana Sunshine Society. Membership in the society is open to all high school girls.

Officers of the local chapter for the past year have been Ethel Schnelker, president; Jean Larson, vice-president; Alvena Kanning and Ruth Wright, secretaries; Bonnie Adams, treasurer; and Jean Bowser, publicity chairman. Miss Rowena Walker and Miss Virginia Royster served as sponsors.

Sunshine activities started this year with a formal dinky party which the society gave for all the girls of the high school. Alvena Wagstaff and Alma Vodde received a prize for their excellent portrayal in costume of "L'il Abner and Daisy Mae."

Inspired by this party, the girls held their annual membership drive and their formal initiation—a very impressive candle-light service held in the auditorium.

Santa Claus, in collaboration with the Sunshine girls, made Christmas a bit happier for sixty children of our school at the society's annual charity party on December 24.

According to their custom, members of the society planned and decorated the stage for the Easter convocation on April 22.

Other activities in which the girls participated included a skating party, a theatre party, a movie for the student body, and the packing of boxes for their brothers who are serving in the armed forces.

Band

Dick Adams "45"

The Music Department of the school is made up of the Concert Band, the Junior Band, the Beginners' Band, and the Chorus. The Concert Band with a membership of fifty-two is maintained primarily for high school students, provided they can play their respective instruments according to band regulations.

Officers of the Concert Band are Norman Schnitker, captain; Russell Griffiths, quartermaster; Margie Myers, librarian; Virginia Hutson, secretary; Paul Milliman, student conductor.

The Concert Band uses a system of merits and demerits. Merits are given for attending rehearsal, being on time, passing inspection, and practicing in the band room. Merits are also given for playing solos or for playing in ensembles. When a band member receives seven hundred fifty merits, he receives a letter. If a member receives ten demerits, he is automatically out of the band until he erases them by practicing in the band room.

The first concert of the year for the student body was given on Armistice Day. The program featured music of the Revolutionary War, World War I, and World Mar II. A second concert was played for the student body on February 18, 1943. Semi-classical music was used for this concert. A "Victory Concert" was played December 15, 1942. About $8,800 worth of War Bonds and Stamps were sold.

The band played at all the home games and at the pep sessions. In former years the Maneuvering Band has been one of th attractions of the game. This year because of gas and tire rationing the Maneuvering Band has been forced to disband for the duration.

The most important event of the band calendar is the Spring or Formal Concert. This is the last event of the Winter schedule. The Concert is played on the second Sunday of May, this year the date being May 9. The highlight of the Concert was the playing of George Gershwins "Rhapsody in Blue" with piano solo by Bonnie Adams.

On the evening after the Concert the Band Parents' Association gave a banquet for the Concert Band members and the Alumni. At this banquet awards are given to the seniors and to anyone who has earned an award.

The G. A. A. offers a program of major sports during the school year for all girls in New Haven High School. Some of the aims of the G. A. A. are to acquire skill, gain friendships, learn good sportsmanship, and maintain health.

The members of G. A. A. have been supervising the girls' noon intra-mural programs. The major sports consists of basketball, volley-ball, soft-ball, shuffle board, ping pong, tennis and skating. The members win points through participation in these games. A girl earning 150 points receives a winged foot, one earning 250 points a letter, and one earning 350 points a plaque. For the duration, a girl earning 350 points will receive a certificate of accomplishment which may later be exchanged for a plaque.

Girls who won the winged foot award were Iona Bohn, Margery Springer, Kathleen Goeglein, and Lillian Petry. Those who won letters were Delores Rothgeb, Evelyn Rebber, Mary Ellen George, Marlo Felt, Gloria Wiegmann, and Mildred Bowers. The plaque, most prized of all awards, was won by Alice Oberlin.

A get-acquainted party was held at the beginning of the year for new members, and a Tourney Dance was sponsored, Thursday noon, before the Sectional.

Because our funds were low we received permission to operate the canteen at the Hoagland game February 19. This activity netted our organization $10 profit.

Our business meetings were held the first Thursday of each month.

The officers this year were Eleanora Rebber, President; Donnabelle Kitchen, Vice-President; Kathleen Goeglein, Treasurer; Betty Spohr, Secretary. Miss Brubaker was the sponsor.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club has not had much activity this year because of a lack of members. Several meetings have been held and the following officers were elected: Russell Meyer, president; Eugene Lepper, vice-president; Joe Bolyard, treasurer; and Arnold Heller, secretary. The other member at present is Roland Bechtol.

The members are working on the constitution and are considering modifying the eligibility for membership to allow others to enter the club. Projects of the "N" club will be taken up after new members are admitted.

An initiation is being planned for the new members of the club. Those to be taken in are: Paul Bearman, Devon Frane, Wallace Quandt, Richard Jump, Elvin Meyer, and Wayne Judt.

Masque And Gavel

A new dramatic club, MASQUE AND GAVEL, has been organized in the high school. The purpose of the club is to promote speech and to serve students and teachers in better usuage of American English. The aim is to provide better speech motivation for all students. The eligibility requirements are (1) must be of junior standing; (2) must meet eligibility requirements of school; (3) must have done superior class work; and (4) must be nominated by the club members and approved by the sponsors. The club is a national organization sponsored by Northwestern University.

After a general announcement to the student body, try-outs, under the direction of Miss Leininger, were held to select possible candidates for membership. On Nov. 6, these students, Richard Critchfield, Joan Hively, Mary Belle Hodson, Carolyn Kollman, Jean Larson, Norma Milliman, Peggy Neumann, William White, and Charles Winans were formally initiated according to the procedure prescribed in the constitution of the club. Officers for the first semester were President, William White; Vice-president, Clara Ransome; Secretary-Treasurer, Joan Hively.

The club colors are red and white. Each charter member bought his own sweater and emblem, but a point system has been established whereby members must earn their emblems.

In January, Virgil Asher, Ruth Doty, Virginia Hutson, Donnabelle Kitchen, John Meyers, LaDonna Robinette, Barbara Seibert, Russell Schweyer, Lois Ulrey, and Pauline Werling joined Masque and Gaval. The officers elected for the second semester were President, Virgil Asher; Vice-president, Pauline Werling; Secretary, Jean Larson; and Treasurer, John Meyers.

To earn money, the paper, "Masque and Gavel" was published under the editorship of Mary Belle Hodson. On Feb. 22, Masque and Gavel gave a Washington Day's Program. April 1 and 2, "Masque and Gavel" in colaboration with the Student Council, presented an "admission program" before the grade rooms and the high school. The profit was divided between the two organizations. The dues of the organization are $2, which includes the national "Masque and Gavel" magazine and the National pin.

The plays presented by the society were "George Washington as a Boy," "George Washington Through a Keyhole," "Last Night's Paper," "The Queen Who Couldn't Make Spice Nuts," a radio play, and "Elmer."

Athletics

The qualities, speed, power, coordination, and fast thinking which are so essential to every athlete, coincides perfectly with the characteristics which our fighting men must possess. New Haven High School teams in basketball and baseball, exemplify the use of these qualities. Our teams always give a good account of themselves, and as a result of this, build up a great following and admiration.

America, today, is striving toward a great athetic program. We who are in high school are doing our part, by participating in Physical Fitness classes. This training will help make young men and women better prepared to cope with the troubled years that are ahead of us.

Bulldogs

"Windy"

RUSSELL MEYER

"Windy" is the most consistent player of the Bulldogs. His fine point-getting and leadership has brought the team to victories which were not expected at the start of the season. He was second high in the county scoring. Being a senior, this is his last year and he will be greatly missed next year.

ROLAND BECHTOL

"Rolly" a senior, too, started the season, and it looked as if he would be a big help to the team. Because of physical disabilities he was not able to play the latter part of the season. He played his best ball against Elmhurst, this being his last night of basketball of the season. Dick Miller took his place during the remainder of the year.

"Red"

EUGENE LEPPER

"Red" is the scrappy little senior guard who has proved his worth to the varsity in his first year. He is one of the best liked players on the team and his fighting spirit has won the admiration of the New Haven fans.

RICHARD JUMP

"Dick" is one of the best of the excellent Sophomore material. He has been a regular in most of the games. He played some of his best ball in the first Central Catholic game, and since then has shown that he will provide the opposition with plenty of trouble in future years.

"Glut"

PAUL BEARMAN

"Glut" is the big boy of the team and you would know why if you saw him eat. He has played regular at Center, and his all around play and rebound work has aided the Bulldogs greatly. He is a senior and his "big" shoes will be hard to fill next year.

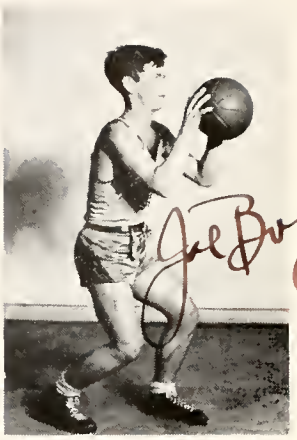
Bulldogs



JOSEPH BOLYARD

"Joe" is another of the fine Sophomore bunch. He is also a regular. Although he is short in stature, he has proved to be a tough defensive man; and when you see an opponent drop the ball, Joe is always around to grab it. He has come through in the pinches with some good scoring and should be a fellow to watch next year.

ELVIN MEYER

"Elvie" is that tall bashful Sophomore who came up in the County Tournament to play some fine ball. He has developed rapidly and is expected to give the opponents plenty of trouble in the next two years.

WALLACE QUANDT

"Squabble" is one of the juniors who played a nice game as forward. He played his best games at Decatur and Ossian. He has joined the Navy and will not be with the squad next year.

WAYNE JUDT

"Hoover" is another of the good Sophomore up-and-coming ball-players. He is a cool player, and with a little experience and practice should give any opponent a big headache.

DEVON FRANE

"Dippy" is a junior who improved greatly during the season. He played fine ball during the latter part of the year and is expected to help greatly next year.

Basketball aids in building youth for physical fitness and leadership. This is the reason why the New Haven Bulldogs have carried on such a vigorous program in basketball this year.

The teams' great success and victorious showing was due to the devoted efforts of our new coach, Mr. Marion Feasel, who is better known as just plain "Feas" to his team.

Coach Feasel has taken part in sports for a number of years. As a junior in high school, he was captain of the Decatur High School team that won the 1932 Fort Wayne Sectional tournament, defeating New Haven in the semi-finals and South Side in the finals. He won major awards in basketball, baseball, and football while at Ball State from 1933-1937. He coached varsity athletics at Clear Creek, Huntington County, and Gray, Jay County, before coming to New Haven in 1940. At our own high school he coached for two years and during this period was very enthusiastic about the varsity team. His background has shown its rewards in the accomplishments of his New Haven Bulldogs this year.

The odds were against our team at the start of the season, because most of the team was inexperienced. It was difficult to overcome such a handicap, but the thirteen wins and five losses should speak for themselves. The team very easily overcame what seemed to be gigantic stumbling blocks. Our double victory over C. C., over Auburn and over Leo prove this point.
